2017 Aboriginal Student Awards Program

The RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program was launched in 1992 to assist Aboriginal students to complete post secondary education, and provide an opportunity for RBC® to strengthen its relationship with the Aboriginal community.

This scholarship is intended to support those Aboriginal students who have at least 2 years remaining in their post-secondary studies. Scholarship recipients are selected primarily on the basis of personal and academic achievements, and individual financial need. Status Indians, Non-status Indians, Inuit and Métis are welcome to apply. Selected students will receive up to $4,000 per academic year for educational and living expenses for 2 to 4 years.

RBC awards ten scholarships in two categories for students:

- Majoring in disciplines related to the financial services industry
- Majoring in disciplines unrelated to the financial services industry

For more information or to apply: www.GoToApply.ca/RBC

Deadline to apply is February 28, 2017

In honour of the late Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté, a prominent member of the First Nations community who was instrumental in leading the launch of the RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program, one of the RBC Awards will be named 'The Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté Leadership Award'. This award will be given to one of the ten winners who demonstrates leadership skills in their community and acts as a change agent for Aboriginal communities.

Rayna Gopaul
2016 Winner and Recipient of the Leadership Award
Seine River First Nation, Manitoba
BA Indigenous Governance and Political Science, University of Winnipeg

Through this scholarship, Rayna is on the fast-track of achieving her dreams of becoming an Indigenous lawyer and leader that will help Indigenous people overcome the unique barriers to accessing justice in Canada. Being raised in foster care and having struggled growing up has shaped her to become a strong young woman who is determined to pursue education against all odds, achieve a bright future for her family and empower young indigenous people in similar circumstances turn their lives around.
