2017 Aboriginal Student Awards Program

The RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program was launched in 1992 to assist Aboriginal students to complete post secondary education, and provide an opportunity for RBC® to strengthen its relationship with the Aboriginal community.

This scholarship is intended to support those Aboriginal students who have at least 2 years remaining in their post-secondary studies. Scholarship recipients are selected primarily on the basis of personal and academic achievements, and individual financial need. Status Indians, Non-status Indians, Inuit and Métis are welcome to apply. Selected students will receive up to $4,000 per academic year for educational and living expenses for 2 to 4 years.

RBC awards ten scholarships in two categories for students:

- Majoring in disciplines related to the financial services industry
- Majoring in disciplines unrelated to the financial services industry

Deadline to apply is February 28, 2017

In honour of the late Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté, a prominent member of the First Nations community who was instrumental in leading the launch of the RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program, one of the RBC Awards will be named 'The Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté Leadership Award'. This award will be given to one of the ten winners who demonstrates leadership skills in their community and acts as a change agent for Aboriginal communities.

Boyce Campbell
2016 Winner

Nunatsiavut Kavamanga, Nova Scotia
Bachelor of Commerce, St Mary's University

Boyce previously served in the Royal Canadian Navy (RCN) with deployments that include Afghanistan and the Arctic. He demonstrated a natural leadership, genuine pride in his Indigenous heritage and was ranked among the top of his peers in the military. Boyce also has a vehement interest in finance, stock markets and economics following the 2008 recession. He left a potentially successful career in RCN to pursue his passion in the financial services industry by studying Economics and Finance in university.
