application & supporting documents today!
Deadline is February 28, 2017

The RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program was launched in 1992 to assist Aboriginal students to complete post secondary education, and provide an opportunity for RBC® to strengthen its relationship with the Aboriginal community.

This scholarship is intended to support those Aboriginal students who have at least 2 years remaining in their post-secondary studies. Scholarship recipients are selected primarily on the basis of personal and academic achievements, and individual financial need. Status Indians, Non-status Indians, Inuit and Métis are welcome to apply. Selected students will receive up to $4,000 per academic year for educational and living expenses for 2 to 4 years.

RBC awards ten scholarships in two categories for students:

- Majoring in disciplines related to the financial services industry
- Majoring in disciplines unrelated to the financial services industry

Deadline to apply is February 28, 2017

In honour of the late Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté, a prominent member of the First Nations community who was instrumental in leading the launch of the RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program, one of the RBC Awards will be named 'The Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté Leadership Award'. This award will be given to one of the ten winners who demonstrates leadership skills in their community and acts as a change agent for Aboriginal communities.

Catherine Dussault
2016 Winner
Wendake, Quebec
Bachelor of Sociology, Laval University

Ambitious and dedicated to her studies, Catherine plans to go on to do a PhD in order to pursue a career in the academic world. Proud of her Aboriginal origins, she longs to share her knowledge and teach young people about the reality and culture of indigenous peoples. Catherine wishes to demystify the issues and dispel the prejudices about her people. With a love for travel, she is naturally curious about people and societies. Catherine has spent time in Latin America, Asia and Europe.
