2018 Aboriginal Student Awards Program

Celebrating 25 years of commitment to Aboriginal students across Canada.

The RBC Aboriginal Student Awards Program was launched in 1992 to assist Aboriginal students to complete post secondary education, and provide an opportunity for RBC® to strengthen its relationship with the Aboriginal community.

This scholarship is intended to support those Aboriginal students who have at least 2 years remaining in their post-secondary studies. Scholarship recipients are selected primarily on the basis of personal and academic achievements, and individual financial need. Status Indians, Non-status Indians, Inuit and Métis are welcome to apply. Selected students will receive up to $4,000 per academic year for educational and living expenses for 2 to 4 years.

RBC awards ten scholarships in two categories for students:

- Majoring in disciplines related to the financial services industry
- Majoring in disciplines unrelated to the financial services industry

Tasha Brooks
2017 Winner
Cowichan Tribes 6420287301, Walden University, Doctorate of Business Administration

Tasha Brooks comes from the Cowichan Tribes and recently graduated with an MBA/MsCIB, she also holds a Bachelor of Business Administrations and a Technician Aboriginal Economic Developer Certificate. Tasha is deeply committed to the betterment of Indigenous Education, her community, and lifelong learning. Her journey through Post-Secondary has led her to France for 3 semesters, the UK for experiential learning and to conferences across Canada. There have been many challenges along the way; her passion for education, mentors, support network, and scholarships like RBC's have helped her stay on the path to a Doctorate of Business Administration which she will start in September 2017. Her aim is to inspire and empower students along their journey and progress towards strong unified nations.
