Celebrating Successful Indigenous Women and Their Paths

NATOA is proud to host its first 'Indigenous Women's Summit' that will take place May 15, 2019 at The Westin Bayshore Vancouver. The summit will feature some of the most successful and influential Indigenous women across the country who have created and accomplished their set goals. Join us as we showcase real life stories of hardships, planning, action, set-backs and victories. The event will also include a special gala evening that will celebrate these women, and will award one exceptional recipient who has accomplished her goals. 50% of the profits will go towards Indigenous women in need.
