2019 Indigenous Student Awards Program

The RBC Indigenous Student Awards Program was launched in 1992 to assist Indigenous students to complete post secondary education, and provide an opportunity for RBC® to strengthen its relationship with the Indigenous community.

This scholarship is intended to support those Indigenous students who have at least 2 years remaining in their post-secondary studies. Scholarship recipients are selected primarily on the basis of personal and academic achievements, and individual financial need. Status Indians, Non-status Indians, Inuit and Métis are welcome to apply. Selected students will receive up to $4,000 per academic year for educational and living expenses for 2 to 4 years.

RBC awards ten scholarships in two categories for students:

- Majoring in disciplines related to the financial services industry
- Majoring in disciplines unrelated to the financial services industry

Jeffrey Sutherland
2018 Winner
Ktunaxa Nation
Bachelor of Commerce, University of British Columbia

Jeffrey Sutherland is a member of the Ktunaxa Nation from southeastern British Columbia but has lived in Langley, BC his whole life. His interests include theatre, improv, playing hockey, playing guitar, and listening to old rock 'n' roll. His biggest goal in life is to spread positivity and good vibes wherever he goes. He will be attending the Sauder School of Business at UBC for a Bachelor's Degree of Commerce. He is interested in many areas of the business world and looks forward to exploring many exciting career opportunities.
