2020 Indigenous Student Awards Program

The RBC Indigenous Student Awards Program was launched in 1992 to assist Indigenous students to complete post secondary education, and provide an opportunity for RBC® to strengthen its relationship with the Indigenous community.

This scholarship is intended to support those Indigenous students who have at least 2 years remaining in their post-secondary studies. Scholarship recipients are selected primarily on the basis of personal and academic achievements, and individual financial need. Status Indians, Non-status Indians, Inuit and Métis are welcome to apply. Selected students will receive up to $4,000 per academic year for educational and living expenses for 2 to 4 years.

RBC awards ten scholarships in two categories for students:

- Majoring in disciplines related to the financial services industry
- Majoring in disciplines unrelated to the financial services industry

Deadline to apply is February 28, 2020

In honour of the late Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté, a prominent member of the First Nations community who was instrumental in leading the launch of the RBC Indigenous Student Awards Program, one of the RBC Awards will be named 'The Corinne Mount Pleasant-Jetté Leadership Award'. This award will be given to one of the ten winners who demonstrates leadership skills in their community and acts as a change agent for Indigenous communities.

My name is Kelly Gordon and I have a beautiful daughter named Brooklyn. We are of Inuvialuit and Gwich'ya Gwich'in descent, born in Inuvik, NWT. Currently I am full time student at Mount Royal University; I hold 48 out of the 120 credits needed to receive a Bachelor of Business degree. We want to share our gratitude towards the RBC Student Awards Program. Brooklyn and I want to say Mahsi Cho (Thank you); we are more than both honored to receive 2019 RBC Indigenous Student Awards thank you so much for your generous support.
