What is the opportunity?

RBC's National Indigenous Student Internship Program aims to help students, who self-identify as Indigenous/Aboriginal (First Nations, Inuit, Métis), develop the skills and network needed to build their career in banking. Be a part of an exciting four month experience which gives you exposure to a specific functional area of the bank in Finance, Operations, Advice Centre, Audit, Risk Management, Retail/Commercial Banking, Capital Markets and Technology. Our program is designed to hone in on your skills, explore your strengths, and build the career you want.

How it works:

- You will have our dedicated Indigenous recruiters answering all of your application questions: indigenoustalent@rbc.com
- A mentor can be assigned to you to help you learn and grow
- You will have the opportunity to connect and network with your fellow students as well as our Royal Eagles employee resource groups through various Indigenous initiatives and events at RBC

What's in it for you?

We thrive on the challenge to be our best, progressive thinking to keep growing, and working together to deliver trusted advice to help our clients thrive and communities prosper. We care about each other, reaching our potential, making a difference to our communities, and achieving success that is mutual.
