

Join Katimavik a youth empowerment program

Spend 5 months serving communities, learning new things and building bonds that last a lifetime.

Ava, Sagkeeng First Nation and Luca from Bromont, Quebec,
at a Moncton Pride Parade

Katimavik, which means 'meeting place' in Inuktitut, is a youth empowerment organization bringing together diverse youth for a transformative 5-month living experience.

Katimavik

Katimavik participants volunteer together in the communities, embrace real diversity, learn to co-exist with others and build respect, form new bonds, learn from Elders and Knowledge Keepers, engage in Truth & Reconciliation learning.

Are you?

- 17 – 25 years old?
- A resident or citizen of Canada?
- Motivated to learn new skills?
- Ready to meet the challenges of group living and be a team player?
- Prepared to volunteer and participate in group activities?
- Feel able to fully commit to an immersive full-time program and be willing to work on your personal autonomy?

Applications to the programs for 2022 and 2023 are open!
Apply now!

Katimavik is a partner with Indigenous Link's Community Connections

For more information or to apply:
GotoApply.ca/Katimavik

