

INDIGENOUS HISTORY & HERITAGE GATHERING

Register by May 5th to take advantage of preferred hotel rates!

Led by First Nations, Inuit and Métis thought leaders, a three-day gathering to understand, promote and share Indigenous histories.

June 5-7, 2023
Shaw Centre
Ottawa, ON

Unceded and Unsurrendered
Algonquin Anishinaabe Territory

The Indigenous History and Heritage Gathering will attract Indigenous community members developing history and heritage projects, and anyone working in the field of Indigenous History, including museum professionals, historians, legal counsel, engagement specialists, and culture and language professionals.

Speakers include keynotes by Tanya Talaga, Author, Journalist, and President of Makwa Creative and Kim Murray, Special Interlocutor on Missing Children and Unmarked Burials. We invite all interested in amplifying the distinct stories of Indigenous Peoples across Turtle Island to register now.

Knowledge Sharing Streams:

| | | | |
|-----------------|-----------------------------|------------------|----------------------|
| Historic Claims | Residential and Day Schools | Place and Naming | Language and Culture |
|-----------------|-----------------------------|------------------|----------------------|

Keynote Speakers:

Kimberly Murray

BA, LL.B, LL.M, IPC

*Independent Special Interlocutor for Missing Children and Unmarked Graves and Burial
Sites associated with Indian Residential Schools*

Tanya Talaga

*Author, Journalist,
President of Makwa Creative*

Hosted by:

National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation
UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA

First Nations
Confederacy of Cultural Education
Centres

Presented by:

Know History

Please visit
IHHG.CA
to learn more.