NA-MI-QUAI-NI-MAK I remember them COMMUNITY SUPPORT FUND

SMALL GRANTS TO SUPPORT COMMUNITY-BASED HEALING AND REMEMBRANCE

The act of remembering will shape generations to come....

Funds are available to registered non-profits, Indigenous communities, and Survivor organizations who support Survivors with small grants up to $10,000 for memorial activities.

Non-profits must show they are working with Survivors, Survivor organizaitons or Indigenous Communities to apply for the fund.

Communities and Residential School Survivors know what activities best support healing, memorials and remembrance in their communities.

Applications are available online and through contacting the NCTR. There is no deadline to apply.

SOME POSSIBLE ACTIVITIES COULD INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Community-led healing gatherings
- Ceremonial activities (memorial feasts, give-aways, etc.)
- Memorial or commemorative markers (healing gardens, murals, carvings, plaques, etc.)
- Maintenance of burial sites (fencing, cutting back overgrowth, etc.)

APPLY TODAY AT NCTR.CA

Survivors of Residential Schools can commemorate their experiences in numerous ways, such as sharing their stories through oral or written narratives, participating in healing circles or support groups, creating artwork or sculptures that reflect their journey, organizing community events to raise awareness and promote healing, contributing to historical research and documentation, engaging in cultural revitalization efforts, or establishing memorials and monuments to honor the resilience and strength of the survivors.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Jennifer Wood

Intergovernmental and Community Relations Officer, NCTR

Ph: 1-204-914-4757 Email: jennifer.wood@umanitoba.ca

