BANFF

CENTRE FOR ARTS AND CREATIVITY

Indigenous. Ingenious.

Programs for Indigenous people, inspired by Banff's unique power of place.

A Sample of Our Programs

Indigenous Arts

Informed by Indigenous cultures and worldviews, we offer programs in all disciplines for emerging to established Indigenous artists. Our programs are highly transformative, situate rigour and exploration at their centre, and are inspired by 'power of place' here in Treaty 7 territory.

Through outstanding performances, concerts, residencies, presentations, workshops, talks, and exhibitions, Indigenous Arts contributes to strong and vibrant Indigenous arts communities in Canada and around the globe.

Indigenous Leadership Programs

Join an intergenerational legacy of strong community leaders. Indigenous Leadership programs at Banff Centre provide leaders an opportunity to gain a better understanding of how to establish a strategic direction for their communities and organizations, implement that plan through focused effort, and measure performance.

Leaders also learn the knowledge and skills necessary to run effective organizations and build communities with sustainable economies. With investment in their professional development, community leaders will have additional knowledge and tools to achieve incredible change and growth.

Shows & Festivals

Inspiring events and performances to celebrate, entertain, raise awareness and open conversations about National Indigenous Peoples Day, Decolonizing the Narrative Conversation Series, National Indigenous Peoples Month, Indigenous Haute Couture - to name a few.
