

Opportunity at Toronto Metropolitan University

Tenure Track Position in Indigenous Politics and Governance

Located in downtown Toronto, the largest and most culturally diverse city in Canada and on the territory of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee and the Wendat Peoples, the Department of Politics and Public Administration in the Faculty of Arts at Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University) invites applications for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant Professor effective July 01, 2025 subject to final budgetary approval.

The Opportunity

The successful candidate will engage in a combination of teaching, scholarly research or creative activity and service duties while maintaining an inclusive, equitable, and collegial work environment across all activities. Visit the link below for more information.

Toronto
Metropolitan University

This position is a designated equity position and restricted to recognized First Nations, Métis, Inuit candidates, or Indigenous peoples of Canada, subject to an affirmation process by the University.

Closing date: Saturday, Nov 9, 2024

Any confidential inquiries about the opportunity can be directed to the Department Hiring Committee Chair, Professor Mitu Sengupta at sengupta@torontomu.ca.

TMU is a proud partner of Indigenous Link's
Community Connections

For details, we invite you to visit:
GotoApply.ca/TMU-TenureTrack

